EVYN KROPF RECOVERING COLLECTIVE MEMORY

Tracing the Arabic, Persian, and Turkish manuscripts of Gümüşhanevî foundation libraries
across dispersal and collection

Evyn Kropf is a librarian and curator of Islamic manuscripts at the University of Michigan Library. As a specialist of Islamic codicology and Arabic manuscript culture, her particular interests include writing material (especially paper), structural repairs, reading and collecting practices of the Ottoman era as well as the significance of pictograms and other visual content for Sufi knowledge transmission.
