

This is Shayesteh Ebrahimi. I hold a PhD in Persian language and literature.

I think that this position is an interdisciplinary project and it could be a new and great educational experience for me; as regard to my long-time activities as a poetess in a Male-dominated society. (I have a proposal in this title: "women's writing in Modern Persian Poetry")

So, when I saw this Position, became too excited. I think I could be more awareness and active in field of poetry, especially poetry of women and their literary life that I have been in.

Another reason I am interested in studying in Canada is that I have started an immigration program and will soon be moving to Canada to live permanently.

In 2005, I have got my B.A. in Persian Language and Literature from Allameh Tabatabae'i University; and, in 2009, I have got my Master's Degree in Persian Language and Literature from Islamic Azad University (Science and Research Branch-Tehran). My graduation in terms of Ph.D. goes back to 2016 from Islamic Azad University (Science and Research Branch-Tehran). Meanwhile, I have got first scientific rank in Ph.D. entrance exam in 2011. Subjects of M.A. and Ph.D. theses of mine have been "Role of women in One Thousand- and One-Nights Tales" and "Comparative thematic study of children's and youth poetry in Iran and England", respectively. My Ph.D. thesis in 2017 has been recognized as the top one in the field of children's and youth literature.

I have five research and scientific paper, in addition to seven books that two of them are poetry books; and, two of them are research and corrections performed on manuscripts related to 9th and 10th Centuries AH. Also, 14 books have been translated by and presented in form of translation and summarization of the World Classic Literature for young adults. Moreover, I have a hand in editing books; and, I hold a valid writing and editing certificate. I have 10 years of work record in the field. I also have a two year's work record as freelance teacher in Payam e Noor and Azad university; and, right now I am working as a freelance, editor, poet and researcher.

I hope my qualifications meet your requirements.
