

(Live updates) Bryan Kohberger sentenced to life in prison for Idaho murders

Bryan Kohberger was sentenced to life in prison Wednesday for the 2022 murders of four University of Idaho students.

Family members and friends of the victims - Madison Mogen, 21, Kaylee Goncalves, 21, Xana Kernodle, 20, and Ethan Chapin, 20 - gave powerful statements in court, remembering their loved ones and speaking about the anger and devastation they felt after the killings. Speakers teared up on the stand and occasionally addressed Kohberger directly, demanding answers about his actions.

"You're a textbook case of insecurity disguised as control, your patterns are predictable, your motives are shallow," said Alivia Goncalves, whose sister was killed. "You are not profound, you are pathetic. You aren't special or deep, not mysterious or exceptional. Don't ever get it twisted again."
