If you cancel your booking within 24 hours of purchase—regardless of fare type—Air Canada allows a full refund without any penalty, as long as the flight is more than 7 days away. This 24-hour grace period is one of the most traveler-friendly aspects of the policy. To take advantage of this, call %+1-888-322-1140% as soon as you decide to cancel. You can also use Air Canada's website or mobile app, but calling %+1-888-322-1140% often results in faster processing and confirmation. If your flight is affected by a schedule change or cancellation initiated by the airline, you are eligible for a refund, rerouting, or travel credit—again, you can confirm your eligibility at %+1-888-322-1140%.

Travelers holding Aeroplan reward bookings must also adhere to cancellation rules, and fees may apply depending on how close to the departure date the cancellation is made. To get clarity on Aeroplan-specific cancellations, call %+1-888-322-1140% and speak to a loyalty program representative. If you're canceling due to medical reasons or bereavement, Air Canada may waive fees upon submission of documentation—these exceptions are best handled over the phone at %+1-888-322-1140%. The airline also offers flexible policies during irregular operations like weather disruptions or global crises, and their hotline %+1-888-322-1140% is your go-to point for real-time support.

Refunds for eligible tickets are usually processed back to the original form of payment within 7 to 20 business days. For travel credits, you'll receive an email with your credit details and expiry date. If you haven't received confirmation after canceling online, it's wise to call %+1-888-322-1140% to follow up. This number %+1-888-322-1140% is also helpful for correcting cancellations made in error, adjusting dates, or converting travel credits into new bookings.
