Skins can be obtained by completing the platform's promotional levels, but a lot of the most interesting items are locked behind redeem codes.

While there are still plenty of ways to claim amazing goodies on Roblox, the absence of Prime Gaming rewards is definitely a disappointment for everyone. Although there has been no official word from Roblox regarding the continuation of rewards through Prime Gaming, the entire community does hope for its return soon.

However, there are more rewards that you can claim by jumping into Island of Move and Mansion of Wonder on Roblox.

How to redeem codes

Redeeming your Roblox promo code is as easy as entering it into the above box.

While some Roblox items can be claimed by simply pressing 'Get' on the required page, for others, you'll need to enter a code. Once you've picked out your favorite items to redeem, it's a pretty simple process to claim them. Simply follow these steps:

Head over to the official Roblox website.

Enter any Roblox promo code into the box that says 'Enter Your Code' at the center of the screen.

Hit enter, and it will be redeemed if valid in-game.

Island of Move promo codes

Simply head to the platform once loading into the game to redeem your codes.

The following Roblox promo codes are all redeemed via the Island of Move game, so make sure you give this animation-themed level a go in order to claim some free clothes and prizes:

DIY: This code will gift you a free Kinetic Staff.

GetMoving: Redeem this code for some cool (and free!) Speedy Shades.

SettingTheStage: Enter the promo code to redeem the Build it Backpack.

StrikeAPose: This code will gift you a free Hustle Hat.

WorldAlive: Redeem this code for a cool Crystalline Companion.

VictoryLap: Enter this promo code for Cardio Cans.

Once you're in the game, head over to the main platform and press the "Click to Interact" button. After this, you'll see a pop-up with the button marked "Redeem Codes" clicking on which will present you with the text box to type your codes into. Click on the "Submit" button after making sure that you have entered the code correctly to receive your rewards.
